ACS Named to Top 20 in Training Outsourcing Industry for Six Consecutive Years

DALLAS, TEXAS: March 19, 2009 – Affiliated Computer Services, Inc. (NYSE: ACS) has been named to the Top 20 companies list in the training outsourcing industry by Training Industry, Inc. for the sixth consecutive year.

Training Industry, the research expert on the marketplace for learning, recognized ACS for its demonstrated leadership in shaping the training outsourcing industry, corporate leadership and professional talent, industry recognition and innovation, and experience in managing multi-year and multi-service training business process outsourcing (BPO) engagements.

“Despite an economic slowdown, this year's Top 20 companies have demonstrated their ability to create innovative solutions for their clients,” said Doug Harward, chief executive officer, Training Industry, Inc. “ACS continues to grow and impress the market as an important member of a very elite group of learning BPO providers. Its learning expertise, combined with its human capital management consulting and services capability, positions ACS as a dominant force within the training outsourcing industry over the next few years.”

For the 2009 list, recipients were also measured on potential for growth in training BPO services, revenue generated, geographic reach, and strength of their client list.

“This recognition continues to highlight our commitment to our clients, shareholders and our people,” said Richard Klingshirn, executive managing director, ACS Learning Services. “Our approach in providing discrete or full outsourcing services and the ongoing investments we are making in thought leadership, infrastructure and people continue to pay dividends for our clients, and help us realize growth in our learning process outsourcing business.”

Training Industry, Inc. prepares its annual list as a commitment to the industry and its TrainingIndustry.com community members to help buy-side organizations search for the right training partner.
