

February 9, 2009

Lorne Hamilton Joins ACS Learning Services

Affiliated Computer Services, Inc. announced the appointment of Lorne Hamilton as a Vice President, Sales for the Learning Services Business Development group. Lorne's addition further strengthens a business development team led by Catherine Kleve, which is guiding new and existing clients through challenging business conditions through the development and delivery of end-to-end, world-class outsourced talent development solutions.

"We are excited to have a professional of Lorne's caliber join ACS' team of learning professionals," said Richard Klingshirn, ACS Executive Managing Director of learning services. "Lorne brings a strategic perspective and level of experience that will benefit our clients and further enhance our abilities to build and deliver world-class learning process outsourcing services."

Hamilton has held positions in the learning and outsourcing industries since 1990, recently bringing innovation to and managing the delivery of learning outsourcing to Global 100 clients. "Lorne is one of the most knowledgeable training outsourcing professionals I've met in the industry. He has proven to understand a client's needs and how to introduce solutions which align with their business requirements," says Doug Harward, CEO of Training Industry, Inc. and Founder of Trainingoutsourcing.com.

Lorne can be reached at lorne.hamilton@acs-inc.com.